

City Under Fire is based on a true event that happened years ago. This story is about a city torn apart by the ravages of a fire that sweeps through the city destroying everything in its wake. As lives are threatened, the city comes together to help each other in their most desperate time of need. Find out who will live and who will die?